

Who Is TLC Technologies?

TLC is a specialty consulting firm that focuses on Business Intelligence & Corporate Performance Management.

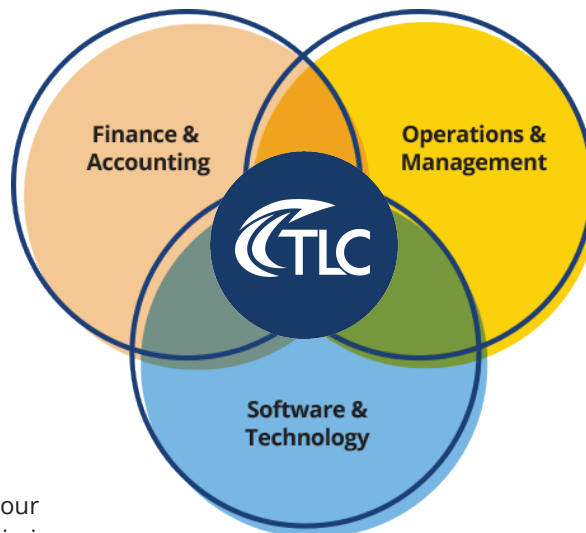

Since 1997 the firm has been dedicated to building world class solutions for our customers. We facilitate new ways of thinking and working so you realize and sustain the true value of your technology. We take the complexity out of implementation with our Lean-agile principles, portable and repeatable architecture, and deployment frameworks. Our experience spans: Financial Consolidation, Planning, Budgeting, Operational Metrics, and Software and Technology.

Software Partners:

Why TLC Technologies?

Our highly skilled resources focus on the rapid delivery of business solutions to transform data into actionable, decision-ready information to allow our customers to meet their business objective. TLC Technologies combines business and technical expertise and consider both your short-term and long-term goals to ensure your organization is taking full advantage of what a fully enables Business Intelligence platform can provide. We customize your project plan, leveraging our proven methodology, and guide you to maximize your investment. Project success requires setting a clear vision, having a well-thought-out plan and solid communication. By aligning the TLC team of consultants with your company goals, we can help establish a solid foundation for your success.

Accurate, timely and cost-effective Corporate Performance Management and BI Solutions

